

High-level Design

Description

The foundation of the system will consist of nine classes: Timeline, Event, FileHandler, Parser, TimelinePane, UserInterface, Controller, TimelineCreator and EventCreator. The user will be creating events and timelines through pop-up windows. The FileHandler will then write an xml file for the timeline. The FileHandler also has the ability to load timelines and send them to the UserInterface to display.